Domestic Violence Information

California Penal Code section 273.5 (a) reads as follows:

"Any person who willfully inflicts upon his or her spouse, or any person who willfully inflicts upon any person with whom he or she is cohabiting, or any person who willfully inflicts upon any person who is the mother or father of his or her child, corporal injury resulting in a traumatic condition is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for two, three or four years, or in a county jail for not more than one year, or by a fine of up to six thousand dollars ($6000) or by both."

Domestic violence includes, but is not limited, to the following circumstances:

- Physical - hitting or burning
- Sexual - rape or incest
- Emotional - threatening, insulting or harassing
- Neglect - poor physical or emotional care
