

1. Welcome and Introductions by Amber Ginsberg @ 7:20pm, Icebreaker
  2. Janice Hahn acknowledged Pastor Lisa Williams as "Woman of the Year," ceremony on March 9
  3. Bridge Housing - Navigation Center (Gaby Medina) Volunteers of America, complete by end of Feb. meeting tomorrow with staff to discuss referrals from HIS, timeline available tomorrow, opening mid-march to allow service provider two weeks to get settled, grand break for Beacon and Eurbank on Feb. 19 at 2pm probably, with mayor etc. same day for both Bridge Homes, 3 months to build with staff sitting in on all meetings (Jacob Haik) every day delayed is a $5,000 fine by the city, will be active construction site as of Feb. 10, PATHS in SP and US Vets in Wilmington, Bridge Home in Watts, 2 people employed, 2 placed, 14 matched - matched means with a housing provider, processing payments, 1 voucher to 2-3 people and whoever goes first, matched means section 8 voucher to ensure the voucher is used, working with Will Grant Vision for Watts Bridge and St. Andrews site in LA, meeting next week with final tally for the 14 people, opens up 14 beds for new clients, developers are asking for funds to build is connecting them with state and other funds for ADUs, marine behind vias for PSA, Shipping containers, rehab facility at the Port for containers? Need to create a market, place to send and receive them, transportation public transit
  4. Tim McOsker ~ spoke to LINC today about Deepwater, PLUM date rescheduled to after the 18 but it is tentative, will need speakers on that, county health facility, construction cost was 250k, walked through 7 days a week work, commitment to resources is "Bridge Like" and use HIS to engage to those in the surrounding community first, significant police activity recent, read update from Hahn, modeled after Bridge HOe
  5. Pastor Lisa Williams, Showers of Hope, 3rd Wednesday of every month from 11-2pm at San Pedro United Methodist Church, haircuts, clothings, music, 15 used showers, 48 were fed, "Street Medicine" vendor through Venice, in Lomita on Fridays
  6. Full hygiene coming on Lomita and McCoy, county sewer line, with showers and restrooms with an attendant, CARE team Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, will be open 4-6 weeks, concerns about hepatitis
  7. Rudy Caceres, Heal to Grow, "Sharing Survivor Stories" for people who experienced domestic abuse, Sunday March 8, 7-9pm, International Women's Day at the Garden Church in 6th Street, partner with Rainbow Services, free admission, parking, and food
  8. Johanna Rodriguez - ADH all 26 sites up by the end of June, first HHH housing opened in South LA, ADU application open in fall for folks who already have an existing un-permitted one if landlord agrees to house senior, low-income for 3 years, Census Goodwill Ambassador Training on Thursday at Harbor College to get people to talk about census, 1.5 training and get $100 for attending, come to training, get $500 for hosting event with 25 people, food and translators are available with childcare
  9. Quincy ??? from ??? ~ March 14 on Saturday at African-American Museum, Stories from the Frontline, family and friends welcome at 4pm tentatively
- March meeting - update on RSP, met at county shelter